ABOUT NIC

INTRODUCING THE NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF CAREGIVERS NIGERIA TO YOU

Inaugurated APRIL 20th 2022, NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF CAREGIVERS NIGERIA has the responsibility of supporting and advocating for caregivers, who provides care and support to individuals with various needs, such as elderly, physically challenged, patients with chronic illnesses, or people with special needs.

We also ensure the services of our professionals is well coordinated to reach the elderly and all the vulnerable members of the society for maximum positive impact.

VISION, MISSION & VALUES

NIC exist to train trainers in the Care industry to give the best-needed care services to the vulnerable regardless of the needed demographic, age or condition of help. Also the care for the senior citizens who have given all in the service of both their loved ones and the country at large, we believe it's time to give them the best care needed as everyone will also one day require the same best care. Caregiving is gradually taking shape in Nigeria generally just as it is in other African countries. We have come to realize that the IT world and the health sector are the two industries that will outlive man as we sojourn-on, on Earth.

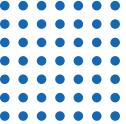

The mission of the NIC is to raise the standards in caregiving and the awareness of the critical role that caregivers play in society and to promote policies that support and empower them

OUR CORE VALUES

integrity, Professionalism, Teamwork, Caregiving, Service & Empathy

OUR SERVICES

Nobody knows what the future will bring, which makes it difficult to prepare. When someone you're close to has special care needs, you may feel lost and unsure what you should do next. That's normal. In those times, it's important to rely on people with the skills and experience to help.

Even though every care situation is unique, NIC caregivers are not only trained to be prepared, but they're trained to help you cope as well, so you can feel comfortable knowing your loved ones are in good hands. Contact the NIC office today to get more information on how we can help you.

Examples are:

- Parkinson's Disease
- Diabetes Care
- Alzheimer's, Cognitive and Dementia Care

When serious and chronic health issues affect someone you love, you might think the only option is assisted living or a nursing home. But the familiarity and comfort of home can make all the difference in the quality of life. Fortunately, we offer nursing care that can help ensure your family member's medical needs are met at home. It's quality, one-on-one medical support and attention, without the hospital. Best of all, NIC qualified health care professionals are hand-picked to match your loved one's situation, whatever it may be.

Contact a local NIC office today to get more information on how we can help

Examples are:

- Care Management
- Medication Management
- Nursing Services

OUR SERVICES

PERSONAL CARE

People often take for granted the things they do every day, like climbing stairs, taking care of personal hygiene and even just getting out of bed in the morning. But these things can become major challenges as you age. In many cases, loved ones think the only solution is to put their older family members into nursing homes. NIC caregivers can provide personal care with dignity and respect, so the home can be a place of comfort, not frustration. Contact a NIC office today to get more information on how we can help you.

Examples are:

- Mobility Assistance
- Self-Care
- Feeding

COMPANION CARE

Over the course of your life, you've tailored your home to be exactly how you want it. You've set routines that feel familiar. However, as you get older, you may find it hard to keep up with things. You may struggle to do household chores or make your way around town. With our Companion Care services, we aim to make sure you don't have to struggle with the day-to-day.

National institute of caregivers aim to help you. More importantly, our trained caregivers promote healthy living and well-being through the benefits of social interaction. We specially equip our caregivers with the required skill to get this done

CAREER JOURNEY

NIC exist to train Trainers, in the Care industry to give the best-needed care services to the vulnerable regardless of demography, age or condition of help that is needed.

We are looking for people who are as driven as we are to improve the quality of life for those we serve. It's an incredibly rewarding mission that our team is dedicated to achieving. Owners, support staff, caregivers and more all play key roles in empowering seniors and adults with disabilities with the support they need to remain in their homes. It's not just a bonus—in our eyes, it's the basis of everything we do. If you'd like to help us live out our mission, join our team!

By 2050, 1.6 billion people in the world will be over age 65. That is over a billion reasons to care. Guided by our core values, we intend to help these seniors remain in their homes. There is also care homes run by the organization at the long run. Apart from live in caregivers we going to be running care homes across the federation

WHY BE A CAREGIVER?

Caregiving is gradually taking shape in Nigeria generally just as it is in other African countries. I have come to realize that the IT world and the health sector are the two industries that will outlive man as we sojourn-on, on earth. The possibility to get old and eventually die is certain and it's a stage everyone dreads except very few people. With that in mind, we want to take good care of ourselves anytime we are sick, while going old and there are a growing population of people that needs special care in various ways

WHO ARE WE?

VICTOR OLUSAN

PRESIDENT OF NIC

Victor Olusan is the Chief Promoter of the National Institute of Caregivers. He is the Founder/President who sees Caregiving not just as a business but as an opportunity to serve the vulnerable, the elderly and the physically challenged in society.
